

Join us at St Richard Gwyn Catholic High School and be a key part of our happy and successful team
ALNCO

Start Date : 1 September 2021

Salary Range : MPS/UPS + TLR 2

The Governors of St. Richard Gwyn Catholic High School are looking to appoint a highly-motivated, creative and innovative ALNCO to take a strategic role in the planning and delivery of provision for children and young people with Additional Learning Needs (ALN).

This post is a vital appointment in terms of fulfilling our mission statement and our vision for our inclusive school; ensuring that we secure and enhance life chances for our most vulnerable students. We would expect the successful candidate to have an unstoppable passion for supporting our ALN students and those with barriers to learning.

This crucial, but demanding, role will oversee our ALN provision and lead the transformation. You will ensure the success of ALN students, monitoring and leading strategically on provision, ensuring there are policies, procedures, systems, structures, resources and personnel in place to promote the progress and outcomes of students at St. Richard Gwyn.

You will have a proven track record as a successful teacher and have exceptional leadership qualities with a real capacity to inspire, motivate, enthuse and support colleagues. You will join a dedicated and hard-working team with high standards and expectations at an exciting time in the development of education in Wales, particularly in the support of pupils with additional needs. This role is suitable for an experienced ALNCO or someone ambitious who would like the opportunity to continue their professional development journey.

St Richard Gwyn is an 11-18 mixed Catholic comprehensive school in the Diocese of Wrexham, serving the population of Flintshire, North Wales. With approximately 785 students on roll including the sixth form, the school has a strong ethos and is a vibrant Christian community. The school is located near the A55 and is easily accessible to north Wales and the north west of England.

Informal visits to the school are welcome.

If you would like to arrange a visit, please contact Mrs Jones, Business Manager
